

The Wrath of God and the Cross

Romans 1:18 and Luke 3:7

- † The “preparer’s bench”
- † What is the wrath of God?
The wrath of God is God’s hatred of sin before a holy God.
- † The wrath of God is not some momentary fit of God’s anger – like people tend to have.
- † God’s anger has no sense of getting even with someone.
- † God’s anger is aimed solely at sin and the causes of sin:
 1. the sin of a person
 2. individual sin
 3. a church’s sin
 4. a city’s sin
 5. a nation’s sin
- † Sin is the only thing that God hates.
- † The wrath of God the day the 10 Commandments were removed from the courthouse lawn in Arkansas (about 2005).
- † The list of sins that cause God’s wrath from Romans 1:24-32.
- † Then, God sent His Son Jesus
 - and the cross
 - and the blood
 - and the darkness
 - and the last drop of blood
- † And Jesus, Savior of the world, Son of God, King of Kings and LORD OF LORDS freed the believer from the wrath to come. PRAISE GOD! And THANK YOU, JESUS!
